The probation officer alleges that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

- |    |  |
|----|--|
| 1. | The offender has violated the supervision condition which states ' You shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime. ' |
|----|--|

On May 2, 2006 , the offender was arrested by the Paramus Police Department and charged with Aggravated Assault on a Police Officer, Eluding, Possession of Cocaine, Possession of Cocaine with Intent to Distribute, Resisting Arrest, Reckless Driving, Possession of CDS in a Motor Vehicle.

On May 2, 2006, the Paramus Police Department received information regarding a drug deal involving the offender and a confidential informant. Upon arriving at the scene, the offender parked his vehicle and then quickly exited the parking lot suspecting that he would be arrested. The officers then pursued the offender at a high rate of speed on a major highway at which time the offender was throwing items which are believed to have been cocaine, out of the driver's side window. The offender proceeded to get off of the highway and was eventually caught by the officers at which time he struck the officers and resisted arrest. It should be noted that the offender admitted to the detective that he did go there with the purpose of selling cocaine.

4. The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall...submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month'

Since April of 2006, the offender has failed to submit his monthly supervision report.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
